PROTECT THE CHILDREN

Editor Ledger: Those charged with the erection of Public Buildings should be doubly careful in providing against fire. This is best done by giving attention to heating facilities.

Within a few years I recall a series of serious losses in this section—

Augusta suffered the loss of her splendid schoolhouse through defective heating apparatus;

Carlisle's Public School was destroyed through the same agency;

The beautiful $30,000 School Building at Paris went the same way;

The Kentucky Wesleyan College, Winchester, shared a like fate;

Paris also lost a magnificent $200,000 Court-house through a fire-trap;

And the Lexington Court-house went up in smoke, entailing an expenditure of nearly a quarter million dollars;

A few months since the handsome High School Building at Martinsville, Ind., was on fire twice inside of two weeks.

Every one of these fires originated from the heating apparatus located inside the building.

In connection with Maysville's new Public School Buildings, I beg to offer a suggestion to the Board of Education and its Building Committee:

Erect your heating plants separate and apart from the buildings.

You have plenty of room on each site to place them twenty feet away from the main buildings. And with the fire entirely outside of the buildings, safety of the children and the buildings is not only assured, but you will save money on insurance. Very respectfully,

THOMAS A. DAVIS.

Why a Painter Smiles

The practical painter says, it makes him smile when a man insists on Patton's Sun-Proof Paints. It always means another job from the man next door. Envy is just another name for human nature.

PATTON'S SUN-PROOF PAINTS

are famous for their lasting qualities. Made from a scientific formula of the best materials, machine mixed in exact proportions, they are the only paints that resist the sun and weather. Do not peel, crack or chalk off. Get a beautiful color card and information from

JUDGE COCHRAN

Sits in Important Case—Eminent Counsel Present

Yesterday Federal Judge A. M. J. Cochran heard in Chambers, C. C. McChord, A. T. Siler and McD. Ferguson, Railroad Commissioners of Kentucky, on a motion for an order of reference in certain actions by the L. and N. and I. C. Railroad Companies to enjoin the enforcement of the order of the Railroad Commissioners reducing rates.

After hearing argument of counsel for both sides Judge Cochran decided to appoint a Commissioner.

The railroads were represented by Hon. H. L. Stono, T. B. Harrison, E. F. Trabue, Attilla W. Cox and John Galvin.

The Commission was represented by United States Senator Thomas H. Paynter, Colonel Bennett H. Young and Hon. Robert H. Winn. Counsel could not agree on a special Commissioner, so the matter was left with the Court, who will take action in a few days.

The outcome will be awaited with considerable interest, as the decision in the case is of National bearing and importance.

It has been many a day since Maysville has been honored with the presence of such an array of learned lawyers and distinguished gentlemen, and were it not for the fact that it is the home of our honored son—a Federal Judge—the historic old town would not occupy such a conspicuous place with the country at large as it does today.

WE ADVISE OUR FRIENDS!

That if they want to take advantage of our clearing out and cleaning up of winter goods not to wait too long. You know the best are always the first to sell, and at the prices we are selling the best you secure Suits and Overcoats cheaper than we can buy them for now. Had we not bought an unreasonably large stock of winter clothing, which really accounts for the prices we are offering them, as we need both money and room, there would be none left at all now. But you know the dancer has to pay the fiddler. So it is that the penalty of a merchant who sometimes buys too many goods must sacrifice profit and often incur losses to clean up. If you will come in and investigate you will find our statements but too true.

"Parsifal."

The story of "Parsifal" is one of intense interest. In the Castle of the Grail, secluded from the haunts of men, two holy relics, the spear and the cup, are guarded by a band of Heaven appointed Knights. Anfortas, their King, trusting rather to physical than spiritual strength, goes forth against Klingsor, a magician of evil repute, whose chief desire is to encompass the downfall of the Knights and the destruction of all holy things. The fall of Anfortas comes through Kundry, who under the spell of Klingsor is transformed into a being of transcendent beauty. Klingsor secures the sacred spear carried by Anfortas and inflicts an incurable wound in the knight's side, which bleeds afresh with every celebration of the Holy rite.

Torn by physical weakness and the pangs of remorse, Anfortas' condition became desperate, when, in answer to his supplications, a celestial voice is heard promising relief.

Parsifal appears, a mere youth, ignorant of the ways of the world. Klingsor fears he may prove to be the Redeemer to heal Anfortas' wound and prepares for him snares of a most seductive kind; beautiful gardens, maidens of wondrous charm, and Kundry herself transformed by magical means into an enchanting nymph, who tempts Parsifal, not by sensual means alone, but by influences which traverse the whole scale of human emotion.

Against all these allurements, however, Parsifal is proof and his purity triumphs. Mad with disappointment and rage, Klingsor hurls the sacred spear at Parsifal, but instead of piercing, it miraculously hangs suspended above the head of the youth, who, grasping it, makes the sign of the cross, whereupon the magic spells are broken. The garden with its wonderful beauty falls to ruin, and Parsifal is seen, high up on the broken wall, triumphantly waving the holy spear thus recovered from the powers of evil.

Again the scene changes to the great hall of the Castle, and once more Anfortas is borne upon his weary litter. The Knight demands that he uncover the Grail, but as with each uncovering his agony increases, he refuses and in a paroxysm of despair, calls upon the Knights to slay him and end his misery. Unobserved, Parsifal now approaches, bearing the sacred spear. He touches the wound and immediately it is healed. Then he proclaims himself King of the Grail and orders it uncovered. Ascending the altar, he raises the sacred vessel in all its crimson beauty. The Knights kneel to do him homage; Kundry dies at his feet in the joy of repentance, and a white dove descending from the dome of the hall, hovers over his head, while Knights and singers sound a hymn of praise.

The story is a grand exposition of the sorrow and suffering of humanity and redemption of Purity, Faith and Love.

This famous mystic drama will be seen at The Washington on Saturday evening, February 23d, at 7:45 p. m.

FURIOUS ITCHING HUMOR ON CHILD

Bleeding Sores Covered Her Whole Body After an Attack of Measles—Nursed Every Night for Three Weeks—Nothing Helped Her.

THEN CUTICURA MAKES COMPLETE CURE IN 5 DAYS

"It is in my opinion my duty to join those who praise the Cuticura Remedies. After my granddaughter of about seven years had been cured of the measles, she was attacked about a fortnight later by a furious, itching and painful eruption all over her body, especially the upper part of it, forming watery and bleeding sores, especially under the arms, of considerable size. She suffered a great deal and for three weeks we nursed her every night, using all the remedies we could think of. Nothing would help. We then remembered having heard so much about Cuticura Remedies. We sent for them and after twenty-four hours we noted considerable improvement, and, after using only one complete set of the Cuticura Remedies, in five consecutive days the little one, much to our joy, had been entirely cured, and has been well for a long time. Mrs. F. Ruefenacht, R. F. D. 3, Bakersfield, Cal., June 25 and July 20, 1906."

HUMOR ON FACE

Cured by Cuticura Remedies No Return in 20 Years.

"My son, when a lad of sixteen, was troubled with humor on his face and after using Cuticura Remedies he was freed from every humor and has continued so to the present time after twenty years have passed. Your Cuticura Soap has been used in my family for several years and I have faith in the Cuticura Remedies. A. H. Smith, Marion, Mo., Dec. 1, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children, and Adults, consists of Cuticura Soap (25c) to cleanse the skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c) to heal the skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c), (in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c per vial of 60) to purify the blood. Sold throughout the world. Putzer Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burton and son were in town yesterday shopping. They were married in this city years ago during a street fair carnival, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. W. Porter, Pastor of the First Baptist Church at the time. The marriage was solemnized on a raised platform in Second street at the foot of Court, and was witnessed by a multitude of people. They were the recipients of many useful bridal presents, part of which perhaps adorn their home today. It was a feature of the street fair and was the means of attracting an immense number to the city.

OUR PRIDE

IS IN THE WORK HARNESS

Department of our store. By giving special attention to the most minute details we turn out Harness whose longevity rivals that of the Deacon's wonderful one-horse shay, which, as you all know, was so wonderfully constructed that it did not wear out in any one particular place, but, after being used for one hundred years to the minute, went to pieces all at once. Our workmen, being skilled at their work, know, as did the Deacon, that "Tis mighty plain that the weakest place must stand the strainin', 'in the way t' fix it, 'uz I maintain is only jes' to make that place as strong as the rest." We can give you the names of some of our customers to whom we sold work harness when we first went into business, and which is still as good as new. Do you not think this is full value received for every cent invested?

Seldom has the Christian Church been taxed as it was the 12th. The large crowd that gathered there to witness the wedding of Miss Emma Huber to Mr. John Kaib, the ceremony being solemnized by Rev. W. W. Hall at 1:30 p. m. It was a lovely wedding of one of our loveliest and most popular young ladies, and the groom is to be congratulated on winning so lovely a bride. They have the best wishes of all for their future happiness.

MAYSVILLE BAR

In the Front Rank of the Profession and Receives High Praise

While so much is being said throughout the length and breadth of the land in regard to the Employer's Liability Act of Congress, which has recently been declared unconstitutional by two Federal Judges, it is to be remembered that the first case submitted, Ruark vs. N. and W. Railway Company, and yet undecided, was by a Maysville lawyer to a Federal Judge, himself formerly a Maysville lawyer.

The brief of Hon. A. D. Cole, attorney for plaintiff, upon the constitutionality of the Act, printed by The Ledger, has received high encomiums from prominent men in the nation. For example, the editors of the Harvard Law Review on reading the brief, assumed that he had won his case and telegraphed for the court's opinion. Ex-Governor Bradley writes: "Many thanks for your brief. I am both instructed and entertained." The President of Kenyon College writes: "Let me thank you for your excellent brief, which I will place in the college library. It will be a benefit to students who are preparing for debates along this line." The Bishop of Ohio writes: "I have read with much interest your argument on the Employer's Liability Act. It certainly seems just. For the list of accidents for the year has been most appalling." President Roosevelt, on receiving a copy of the brief, writes that he has referred it for the consideration of Attorney-General Boudreau, who thereafter entered a motion in a similar case recently taken to the U. S. Supreme Court, to intervene and be heard on behalf of the Government upon the question. The Maysville bar has in the past enjoyed the distinction of being in the front rank of the profession, and we are glad that the younger generation are keeping up the standard.

WORKS WONDERS

A Wonderful Compound—Cures Piles, Eczema, Skin Itching, Skin Eruptions, Cuts and Bruises.

Doan's Ointment is the best skin treatment, and the cheapest, because so little is required to cure. It cures piles after years of torture. It cures obstinate cases of eczema. It cures all skin itching. It cures skin eruptions. It heals cuts, bruises, scratches and abrasions without leaving a scar. It cures permanently. Maysville testimony proves it.

Mrs. Kate Poth, living at the corner of Clark street and Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., writes: "I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment which was published in our Maysville paper. I said that I had received most decided benefits from the use of this remedy. For a long time I had an itching or eczema of the scalp. It broke out in spots and sometimes the spots would appear on my forehead and temples. The itching was particularly troublesome just before a rain, and was then so intense that I could not sleep at night. It required only a short use of Doan's Ointment to cure the trouble, and the cure has been lasting for the past five years. There has never been even an indication of a recurrence. A friend also had eczema and tried everything for it but never found anything to remove the annoyance. On my recommendation she used Doan's Ointment and was absolutely cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
